Final settlement of the old salvage case brought by J. D. Spreckels & Co. against the British ship Loch Garve, is made in a decision handed down today by U. S. District Judge Dole, in which he apportions the $4,000 award among the company and members of the crew on the tug Intrepid which performed the salvage work. The Loch Garve was wrecked off the coast of Molokai in 1907. J. D.
 Spreckels & Co. received the entire award originally, but the court now holds that one-fourth of the amount left, after paying all court costs, shall go to the members of the crew. This one-fourth amounts to $653.76, of which the captain is to receive $190 and the remainder is to be divided between the eleven other members of the salvage crew, in amounts specifically set forth by the court for each individual.

HARBOR BOARD

GETS IDEA FROM FISHER
Asks for Opinion as to Right of Regulating Wharfage
Rates

Already one of Secretary of the Interior Fisher's suggestions, made in the course of the recent inquiry he conducted in Hawaii, has produced results, to a certain extent. At Wednesday's hearing he advised that the harbor commission determine definitely how far the present law will permit it to go in regulating wharf-age rates on privately owned piers, and the commission, at its meeting yesterday, took up this question and referred it to Attorney-General Lin-say for his opinion. It has been generally thought the harbor commission had nothing to do with the dockage rates charged by the owners of private wharves. Now it is to be determined definitely whether the present laws will cover that point, or whether new statutes will be found necessary.

The board yesterday decided to issue a call for bids for the construction of the Kihel wharf.
 The Inter-Island Steam Navigation Company was granted permission to construct a floating drydock in the Bishop street slip. A portion of this drydock has been already built, and recently arrived from San Francisco, being towed here by a tug a few days ago.

The request of Harbormaster Foster that the board investigate the condition of the 'Oceanic wharf with a view to ordering extensive repairs, was granted. Emil Berndt, the secretary of the board, who expects to leave for a seven weeks' buying trip on the mainland, was relieved temporarily of his secretarial duties, though no successor to the position for the interval was selected.

Doctors Use This for Eczema

Dr. Evans, Ex-Commissioner of Health, says: "There is almost no relation between skin diseases and the blood." The skin must be cured through the skin.
 The germs must be washed out, and so salves have long ago been found worthless. The most advanced physicians of this country are now agreed on this, and are prescribing a wash of wintergreen, thymol and other ingredients for eczema and all other skin diseases. This compound is known as D.D.D. Prescription for Eczema.

Dr. Holmes, the well known skin specialist writes: "I am convinced that the D.D.D. Prescription is as much a specific for eczema as quinine for malaria. I have been prescribing the D.D.D. remedy for years." It will take away the itch the instant you apply it.
 In fact, we are so sure of what D.D.D. will do for you that we will be glad to let you have a $1 bottle on our guarantee that it will cost you nothing unless you find that it does the work.
